

NC Superintendent of Public Instruction

Comparison

Michele Morrow

Maurice Green

School Safety

- Demands minimum of 2 school resource officers in every school to keep our children safe.
- Will bring back common sense discipline, to deter crime and promote classroom civility.
- Will enforce background checks for all school staff and suspension of licensure for all pending felonies.
- Calls school safety concerns a “false narrative.” Supports groups calling for complete removal of SRO’s.
- Supports discipline policies based on race.
- At Z Smith Reynolds, funded violent riots of 2020 and defense of criminals who assaulted officers.

Parental Rights & School Choice

- Fought for parents’ right to be fully informed regarding their child’s education, mental, and physical health.
- Believes parents have the right to choose the best school option for their child. Public money should be available for those in need.
- States the Parental Rights Bill “does more harm than good.”
- Supports and is supported by radical agencies that promote sexualization of our children and keeping secrets from parents.
- Fully opposed school choice - at any price, for anyone.

Achievement and Opportunity Gap

- Will demand competency in reading and math before passing students out of elementary school.
- End truancy and emphasize attendance, creating a culture of hope and expectation.
- Lowered standards to increase graduation rates to receive funding.
- Pushes our young people onto the streets ill prepared for adult life.

Fiscal Responsibility

- Will demand an audit of DPI programs ($12 billion budget), cut waste and move that money to the classrooms.
- Will dramatically reduce the size of DPI. No more political cronies getting wealthy off the backs of our students and teachers.
- “More Money Mo” believes $12 billion isn’t enough, and money is the solution to our education crisis.
- Mo will be beholden to teacher unions and organizations, such as Planned Parenthood, that have funded his campaign.
